Ridiculously Staged Readings
Of Your Favorite Screenplays

THIS SEASON'S THEME:
"SINK OR SWIM!"

NEXT UP:

"TITANIC"

- WHAT: THE SERIES: Created by actor and director Ian Bell in 1998, the Brown Derby Series continues to simultaneously parody and pay homage to pop culture's most iconic screenplays. Mr. Bell, along with an under-rehearsed company of Seattle's funniest performers, adapt the screenplays into hilariously distorted versions of their former selves – like a celebrity after plastic surgery.
UPCOMING SHOW: A 101-year-old woman, Rose, tells her story about a cruise on the ill-fated S.S. Titanic. Young Rose boards the Titanic with her mother and fiance, Caledon Hockley. Meanwhile, a drifter named Jack and his pal Fabrizio win tickets for the cruise. Rose and Jack's paths collide like a two ships in the night – or, in this case, like a ship hitting an iceberg.
